History and facts for rubber buttons

HARD RUBBER - THE ALL AMERICAN

By Roy V. Smith
Aunt Tillie's Button Club

My interest in Hard Rubber Buttons began when, as a new collector I was unable to find much information concerning them. Several books include information concerning Mr. Goodyear and his Patents, but what I was interested in was - just what different types and designs were made? So I set out to try to find as many different types as possible and to place them in an orderly fashion. The following information is what I have found to date.

I Manufacturers

- A. I.R.C. Co.
- B. N.R. Co.
- C. D.H.R. Co.
- D. A.H.R. Co.
- E. N.G. Co.

- A. Self
- B. Curved Self
- C. Canvas
- D. Metal
 - 1. Pin
 - 2. Loop

III Sew-thrus

- A. Whistle
- B. 2-Hole
- C. Oval Eye
- D. Fisheye
- E. 4-Hole

IV Color

- A. Black
- B. Brown
- C. Red
- D. Tan
- E. Speckled

V Finish

- A. Dull
- B. Bright
- C. Combined

VI Shapes

- B. Beehive
- C. Domed
- D. Drum
- E. Faceted Top
- F. Faceted Collet
- G. Melon
- H. Square
- I. Thimble
- J. Two-Piece
 - 1. Cup and Saucer
 - 2. Top Hat

VII Materials Combined

Women's March

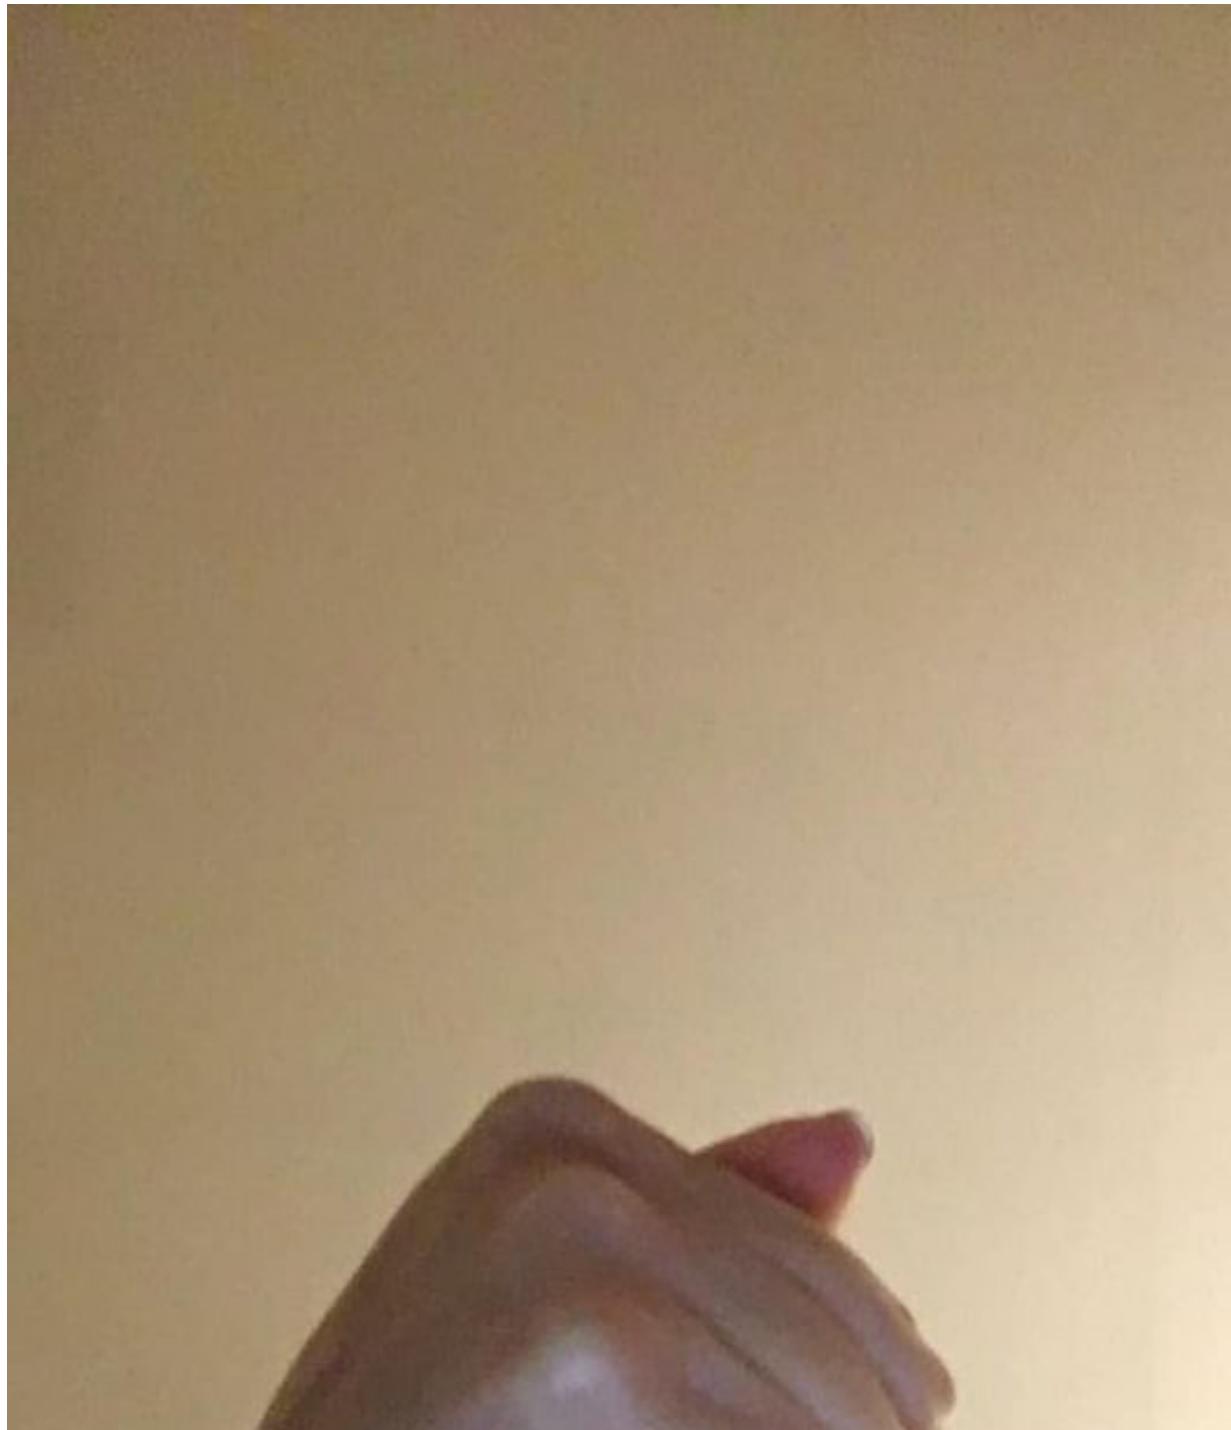

January 19 at 2:54 PM .

This week, we're celebrating 5 years of Women's March!

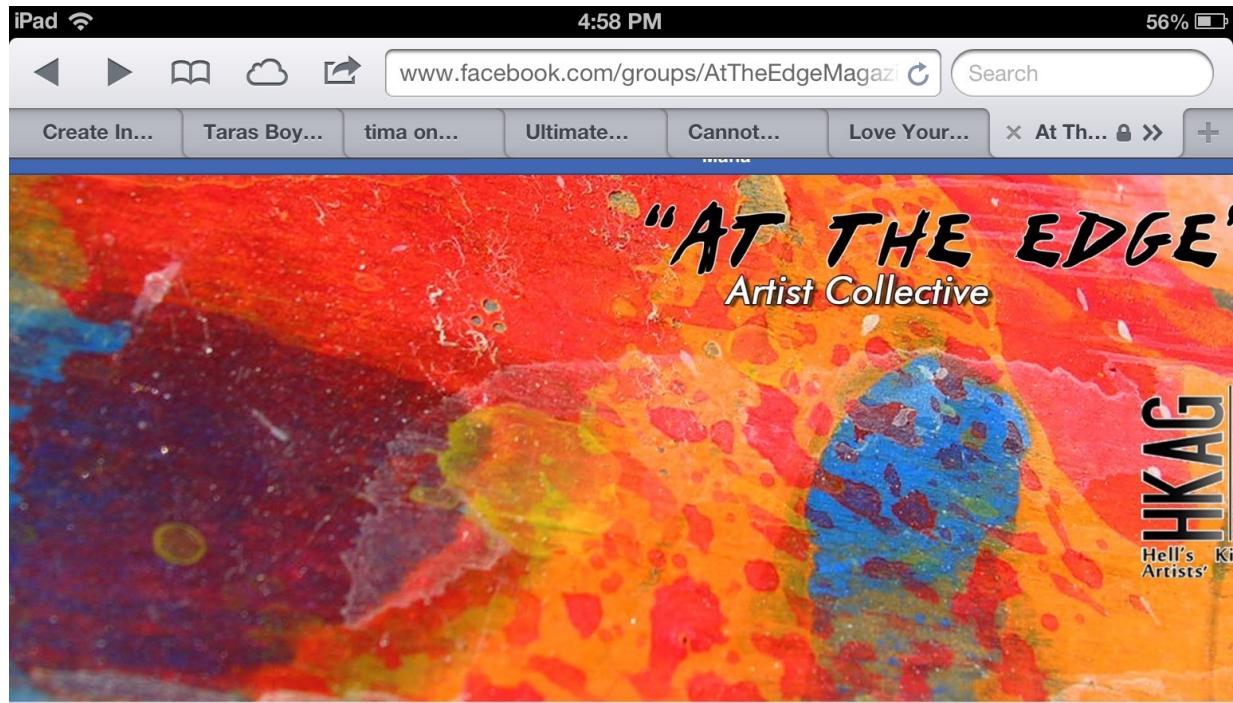

One of the most iconic parts about our marches have been the fiery, fierce, and witty signs over the years. You've probably seen them and made your own!

Help us honor the last 5 years by telling us what you put on your signs below

OFFICIAL STATEMENT FROM WOMEN'S MARCH NYC

Like so many women across the country we at Women's March NYC (WMNYC) are incredibly concerned about the current administration in the White House. Particularly, in the wake of the impeachment trial & acquittal of the 45th President of the United States, we are actively shifting our priorities for 2020 programming. More specifically we are canceling our plans to create an action around the RNC in August and will be bringing on new chapter leaders of diverse backgrounds to reshape the vision of Women's March NYC. To paraphrase Whoopi Goldberg in the hit movie Ghost (1990), "America, you in danger girl!" Seriously, these are dangerous times and we want to ensure WMNYC can be there for the women of NYC in a thoughtful and provocative way. We will need a few short months to reshape our chapter and return to serve our city. Please be patient with us and in the meantime, stay informed, stay alert and remain hopeful because that is what will sustain us in the battles ahead.

In Solidarity,
Women's March NYC

Re: GOFAR FESTIVAL: THANK

YOU + BA FILM SCREENING TODAY at 4PM!

Thanks for the amazing work & effort. It's an honor to be a part of such a strong & brilliant family of artists.

Also, any Resistance Company phone/camera footage is appreciated here:
